Summary of Claim

2. This action arises from a conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain or stabilize prices, rig bids and allocate the market and customers in North America and elsewhere of electric powered steering assemblies used in automobiles and other light-duty vehicles (“EPS Assemblies”). EPS Assemblies link the steering wheel to the tires, and include the column, intermediate shaft, and electric power steering electric control unit, among other parts, but do not include the steering wheel or tires. The unlawful conduct occurred from at least as early as January 1, 2005 and continued until at least October 1, 2012, and impacted prices for several years thereafter. The unlawful conduct was targeted at the automotive industry, raising prices to all members of the Proposed Class.

3. As a direct result of the unlawful conduct alleged herein, the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class paid artificially inflated prices for EPS Assemblies and/or new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies manufactured, marketed, sold, and/or distributed during the Class Period and have thereby suffered losses and damages.

The Plaintiffs

4. The plaintiff, Sheridan Chevrolet Cadillac Ltd. (“Sheridan”), was an automotive dealer in Pickering, Ontario pursuant to a Dealer Sales and Service Agreement with General Motors of Canada Limited (“GMCL”) from 1977 to 2009.

5. The plaintiff, The Pickering Auto Mall Ltd. (“Pickering”), was an automotive dealer in Pickering, Ontario pursuant to a Dealer Sales and Service Agreement with GMCL from 1989 to 2009.

6. The plaintiff, Fady Samaha, a resident of Newmarket, Ontario, purchased a new Honda Civic in 2009.

7. The plaintiff, Urlin Rent A Car Ltd. (“Urlin”), is a motor vehicle rental company located in London, Ontario that has been in operation since the early 1990s.

8. The plaintiffs seek to represent the following class (the “Proposed Class”):

All Persons in Canada who purchased an EPS Assembly;^{1,2} or who purchased and/or leased a new Automotive Vehicle³ containing an EPS Assembly during the Class Period.⁴ Excluded from the class are the defendants, their parent companies, subsidiaries, and affiliates.

² EPS Assemblies purchased for repair or replacement in an Automotive Vehicle are excluded from the Class.

³ Automotive Vehicle means passenger cars, SUVs, vans, and light trucks (up to 10,000 lbs).

⁴ Class Period means between January 1, 2005 and October 1, 2012 and/or during the subsequent period during which prices were affected by the alleged conspiracy.

The Defendants

NSK Defendants

9. The defendant, NSK Steering Systems Co., Ltd. (“NSK Steering”) is a Japanese corporation with its principal place of business in Gunma Prefecture, Japan. During the Class

During the Class Period, Yamada Manufacturing marketed, sold, and/or distributed EPS Assemblies to customers throughout Canada, either directly or indirectly, through the control of its predecessors, affiliates, and subsidiaries, including the defendant, Yamada North America, Inc. (“Yamada NA”).

14. Yamada NA is an American corporation with its principal place of business in South Charleston, Ohio. During the Class Period, Yamada NA manufactured, marketed, sold, and/or distributed EPS Assemblies to customers throughout Canada, either directly or indirectly, through the control of its predecessors, affiliates, and/or subsidiaries. Yamada NA is a subsidiary of Yamada Manufacturing.

15. The business of each of Yamada Manufacturing and Yamada NA are inextricably interwoven with that of the other and each is the agent of the other for the purposes of the manufacture, marketing, sale, and/or distribution of EPS Assemblies in Canada and the conspiracy described hereinafter. Unnamed Co-Conspirators

16. Various persons, partnerships, sole proprietors, firms, corporations and individuals not named as defendants in this lawsuit, including, but not limited to JTEKT Corporation, JTEKT Automotive North America, Inc., Koyo Corporation of U.S.A., Koyo Canada Inc. (collectively “JTEKT”), NSK Ltd., NSK Americas, Inc., NSK Canada Inc. (collectively “NSK”), TRW Automotive Holdings Corp., TRW Automotive Inc., TRW Deutschland Holding GmbH (collectively “TRW”), Mitsubishi Electric Corporation, Mitsubishi Electric Automotive America, Inc., Mitsubishi Electric Sales Canada Inc. (collectively (“Mitsubishi Electric”), Mitsuba Corporation, American Mitsuba Corporation (collectively “Mitsuba”), Showa Corporation, American Showa, Inc. and Showa Canada Inc. (collectively “Showa”), may have participated as co-conspirators with the defendants in the unlawful conspiracy alleged in this statement of claim, and have performed acts and made statements in furtherance of the unlawful conduct. Other persons, partnerships, sole proprietors, firms, corporations and individuals not named as defendants in this lawsuit, the identities of which are not presently known, may have participated as co-conspirators with the defendants in the unlawful conspiracy alleged in this statement of claim, and have performed acts and made statements in furtherance of the unlawful conduct.

Joint and Several Liability

17. The defendants are jointly and severally liable for the actions of and damages allocable to all co-conspirators.

18. Whenever reference is made herein to any act, deed or transaction of any corporation, the allegation means that the corporation or limited liability entity engaged in the act, deed or transaction by or through its officers, directors, agents, employees or representatives while they were actively engaged in the management, direction, control or transaction of the corporation's business or affairs.

The EPS Assemblies Industry

19. EPS Assemblies provide electric power to assist the driver to more easily steer the vehicle. EPS Assemblies link the steering wheel to the tires, and include the column, intermediate shaft, and electric power steering electric control unit, among other parts, but do not include the steering wheel or tires.

20. EPS Assemblies are a smaller electric alternative to the hydraulic powered assemblies traditionally found in passenger vehicles. EPS Assemblies provide a five percent fuel economy gain over the hydraulic version.

21. EPS Assemblies are installed by automobile original equipment manufacturers (“OEMs”) in new vehicles as part of the automotive manufacturing process.

22. For new vehicles, the OEMs – mostly large automotive manufacturers such as General Motors, Chrysler, Toyota, and others – purchase EPS Assemblies directly from the defendants. EPS Assemblies may also be purchased by component manufacturers who then supply such systems to OEMs. These component manufacturers are also called “Tier I Manufacturers” in the industry. A Tier I Manufacturer supplies EPS Assemblies directly to an OEM.

23. When purchasing EPS Assemblies, OEMs issue Requests for Quotation (“RFQs”) to automotive parts suppliers on a model-by-model basis for model-specific parts. In at least some circumstances, the RFQ is sought from pre-qualified suppliers of the product. Typically, the RFQ would be made when there has been a major design change on a model-by-model basis. Automotive parts suppliers submit quotations, or bids, to OEMs in response to RFQs. The OEMs usually award the business to the selected automotive parts supplier for a fixed number of years consistent with the estimated production life of the parts program. Typically, the production life of the parts program is between two and five years. Typically, the bidding process begins approximately three years before the start of production of a new model. Once production has begun, OEMs issue annual price reduction requests (“APRs”) to automotive parts suppliers to account for efficiencies gained in the production process. OEMs procure parts for North American manufactured vehicles in Japan, the United States, Canada and elsewhere.

24. During the Class Period, the defendants and their co-conspirators supplied EPS Assemblies to OEMs for installation in vehicles manufactured and sold in North America and elsewhere. The defendants and their co-conspirators manufactured EPS Assemblies: (a) in North America for installation in vehicles manufactured in North America and sold in Canada, (b) outside North America for export to North America and installation in vehicles manufactured in North America and sold in Canada, and (c) outside North America for installation in vehicles manufactured outside North America for export to and sale in Canada.

25. The defendants and their co-conspirators intended, as a result of their unlawful conspiracy, to inflate the prices for EPS Assemblies and new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies sold in North America and elsewhere.

26. The defendants and their co-conspirators unlawfully conspired to agree and manipulate prices for EPS Assemblies and conceal their anti-competitive behaviour from OEMs and other industry participants. The defendants and their co-conspirators knew that their unlawful scheme and conspiracy would unlawfully increase the price at which EPS Assemblies would be sold from the price that would otherwise be charged on a competitive basis. The defendants and their co-conspirators were aware that, by unlawfully increasing the prices of EPS Assemblies, the prices of new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies would also be artificially inflated. The defendants and their co-conspirators knew that their unlawful scheme and conspiracy would injure purchasers of EPS Assemblies and purchasers and lessees of new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies. The defendants' conduct impacted not only multiple bids submitted to OEMs, but also the price paid by all other purchasers of EPS Assemblies.

27. In 2012, JTEKT was the world's leading supplier of EPS assemblies, holding 30.5% of the global market share. NSK and TRW ranked third and fourth with 11.8% and 11.5% of the global market share respectively. The US market for EPS Assemblies is estimated to have been $4.52 billion in 2012.

28. By virtue of their market shares, the defendants and their co-conspirators are the dominant manufacturers and suppliers of EPS Assemblies in Canada and the world. Their customers include Volkswagen, Ford, Volvo, General Motors, Toyota, and Nissan.

29. The automotive industry in Canada and the United States is an integrated industry. Automobiles manufactured on both sides of the border are sold in Canada. The unlawful conspiracy affected prices of EPS Assemblies in the United States and Canada, including Ontario.

Investigations into International Cartel and Resulting Fines

United States

30. JTEKT Corporation has agreed to plead guilty and pay a fine of US$103.27 million in respect of its role in conspiracies to fix the prices of EPS Assemblies and bearings sold to automobile manufacturers in the United States and elsewhere from at least as early as January 1, 2005 and continuing until at least October 1, 2012.

31. Showa Corporation has agreed to plead guilty and pay a fine of $19.9 million in respect of its role to fix the prices for pinion-assist type EPS Assemblies sold to Honda Motor Co. Ltd and certain of its subsidiaries in the United States and elsewhere from at least as early as 2007 until at least September 2012.

Plaintiffs Purchased New Vehicles Containing EPS Assemblies

32. During the Class Period, Sheridan purchased for resale the following brands of vehicles manufactured by GMCL or its affiliates: Chevrolet, Oldsmobile, and Cadillac.

33. During the Class Period, Sheridan also purchased for resale vehicles manufactured by the following other automotive manufacturers: Suzuki Canada Inc., CAMI Automotive Inc., GM Daewoo Auto & Technology Company, and Daewoo Motor Co.

34. During the Class Period, Pickering purchased for resale the following brands of vehicles manufactured by GMCL or its affiliates: Isuzu, Saab, and Saturn.

35. During the Class Period, Pickering also purchased for resale vehicles manufactured by the following other automotive manufacturers: Isuzu Motors Ltd., Adam Opel AG, and Subaru Canada Inc.

36. During the Class Period, Urlin purchased for use as part of its fleet of rental vehicles the following brands of Automotive Vehicles: Toyota, Ford, General Motors, Chevrolet, Mazda, Dodge, Jeep, Mercedes, Nissan, Volkswagen and Hyundai.

37. The vehicles purchased by Sheridan, Pickering and Urlin were manufactured in whole or in part at various times in Ontario or other parts of Canada, the United States, Japan, and other parts of the world.

38. Sheridan, Pickering and Urlin purchased new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies.

39. Fady Samaha purchased a new Honda Civic in 2009, which contained an EPS Assembly.

Breaches of Part VI of Competition Act

40. From at least as early as January 1, 2005 until at least October 1, 2012, the defendants and their co-conspirators engaged in a conspiracy to rig bids for and to fix, maintain, increase, or control the prices of EPS Assemblies sold to customers in North America and elsewhere. The defendants and their co-conspirators conspired to enhance unreasonably the prices of EPS Assemblies and/or to lessen unduly competition in the production, manufacture, sale, and/or distribution of EPS Assemblies in North America and elsewhere. The conspiracy was intended to, and did, affect prices of EPS Assemblies and new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies.

41. The defendants and their co-conspirators carried out the conspiracy by:
- (a) participating in meetings, conversations, and communications in the United States, Japan, Europe, and elsewhere to discuss the bids (including RFQs) and price quotations to be submitted to OEMs selling automobiles in North America and elsewhere;
 - (b) agreeing, during those meetings, conversations, and communications, on bids (including RFQs) and price quotations (including APRs) to be submitted to OEMs in North America and elsewhere (including agreeing that certain defendants or co-conspirators would win the RFQs for certain models);
 - (c) agreeing on the prices to be charged and to control discounts (including APRs) for EPS Assemblies in North America and elsewhere and to otherwise fix, increase, maintain or stabilize those prices;
 - (d) agreeing, during those meetings, conversations, and communications, to allocate the supply of EPS Assemblies sold to OEMs in North America and elsewhere on a model-by-model basis;
 - (e) agreeing, during those meetings, conversations, and communications, to coordinate price adjustments in North America and elsewhere;
 - (f) submitting bids (including RFQs), price quotations, and price adjustments (including APRs) to OEMs in North America and elsewhere in accordance with the agreements reached;
 - (g) enhancing unreasonably the prices of EPS Assemblies sold in North America and elsewhere;

- (h) selling EPS Assemblies to OEMs in North America and elsewhere for the agreed-upon prices, controlling discounts and otherwise fixing, increasing, maintaining or stabilizing prices for EPS Assemblies in North America and elsewhere;
- (i) allocating the supply of EPS Assemblies sold to OEMs in North America and elsewhere on a model-by-model basis;
- (j) accepting payment for EPS Assemblies sold to OEMs in North America and elsewhere at collusive and supra-competitive prices;
- (k) engaging in meetings, conversations, and communications in the United States, Japan and elsewhere for the purpose of monitoring and enforcing adherence to the agreed-upon bid-rigging and price-fixing scheme;
- (l) actively and deliberately employing steps to keep their conduct secret and to conceal and hide facts, including but not limited to using code names, following security rules to prevent "paper trails," abusing confidences, communicating by telephone, and meeting in locations where they were unlikely to be discovered by other competitors and industry participants; and
- (m) preventing or lessening, unduly, competition in the market in North America and elsewhere for the production, manufacture, sale or distribution of EPS Assemblies.

42. As a result of the unlawful conduct alleged herein, the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class paid unreasonably enhanced/supra-competitive prices for EPS Assemblies and/or new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies.

43. The conduct described above constitutes offences under Part VI of the Competition Act, in particular, sections 45(1), 46(1) and 47(1) of the Competition Act. The plaintiffs claim loss and damage under section 36(1) of the Competition Act in respect of such unlawful conduct.

Breach of Foreign Law

44. The defendants and their co-conspirators' conduct, particularized in this statement of claim, took place in, among other places, the United States, Japan, and Europe, where it was illegal and contrary to the competition laws of the United States, Japan, and Europe.

Civil Conspiracy

45. The defendants and their co-conspirators voluntarily entered into agreements with each other to use unlawful means which resulted in loss and damage, including special damages, to the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class. The unlawful means include the following:

- (a) entering into agreements to rig bids and fix, maintain, increase, or control prices of EPS Assemblies sold to customers in North America and elsewhere in contravention of sections 45(1), 46(1), and 47(1) of the Competition Act; and
- (b) aiding, abetting and counselling the commission of the above offences, contrary to sections 21 and 22 of the Criminal Code, RSC 1985, c C-46.

46. In furtherance of the conspiracy, the defendants, their servants, agents and co-conspirators carried out the acts described in paragraph 41 above.

47. The defendants and their co-conspirators were motivated to conspire. Their predominant purposes and concerns were to harm the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class by requiring them to pay artificially high prices for EPS Assemblies, and to illegally increase their profits on the sale of EPS Assemblies.

48. The defendants and their co-conspirators intended to cause economic loss to the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class. In the alternative, the defendants and their co-conspirators knew, in the circumstances, that their unlawful acts would likely cause injury.

Discoverability

49. EPS Assemblies are not exempt from competition regulation and thus, the plaintiffs reasonably considered the EPS Assemblies industry to be a competitive industry. A reasonable person under the circumstances would not have been alerted to investigate the legitimacy of the defendants' prices for EPS Assemblies.

50. Accordingly, the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class did not discover, and could not discover through the exercise of reasonable diligence, the existence of the alleged conspiracy during the Class Period.

Fraudulent Concealment

51. The defendants and their co-conspirators actively, intentionally and fraudulently concealed the existence of the combination and conspiracy from the public, including the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class. The defendants and their co-conspirators represented to customers and others that their pricing and bidding activities were unilateral, thereby misleading the plaintiffs. The affirmative acts of the defendants alleged herein, including acts in furtherance of the conspiracy, were fraudulently concealed and carried out in a manner that precluded detection.

52. The defendants' and their co-conspirators' anti-competitive conspiracy was self-concealing. As detailed in paragraph 41 above, the defendants took active, deliberate and wrongful steps to conceal their participation in the alleged conspiracy.

53. Because the defendants' agreements, understandings and conspiracies were kept secret, plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class were unaware of the defendants' unlawful conduct during the Class Period, and they did not know, at the time, that they were paying supra-competitive prices for EPS Assemblies and/or new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies.

Unjust Enrichment

54. As a result of their conduct, the defendants benefited from a significant enhancement of their revenues on the sale of EPS Assemblies. All members of the Proposed Class have suffered a corresponding deprivation as a result of being forced to pay inflated prices for EPS Assemblies and/or new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies. There is no juristic reason or justification for the defendants' enrichment, as such conduct is tortious, unjustifiable and unlawful under the Competition Act and similar laws of other countries in which the unlawful acts took place.

55. It would be inequitable for the defendants to be permitted to retain any of the ill-gotten gains resulting from their unlawful conspiracy.

56. The plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class are entitled to the amount of the defendants' ill-gotten gains resulting from their unlawful and inequitable conduct.

Waiver of Tort

57. In the alternative to damages, in all of the circumstances, the plaintiffs plead an entitlement to "waive the tort" of civil conspiracy and claim an accounting or other such restitutionary remedy for disgorgement of the revenues generated by the defendants as a result of their unlawful conspiracy.

58. As a direct, proximate, and foreseeable result of the defendants' wrongful conduct, the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class overpaid for EPS Assemblies. As a result of the unlawful conspiracy, the defendants profited from the sale of EPS Assemblies at artificially inflated prices and were accordingly unjustly enriched. The defendants accepted and retained the unlawful overcharge. It would be unconscionable for the defendants to retain the unlawful overcharge obtained as a result of the alleged conspiracy.

Damages

59. The conspiracy had the following effects, among others:

- (a) price competition has been restrained or eliminated with respect to EPS Assemblies sold directly or indirectly to the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class in Ontario and the rest of Canada;
- (b) the prices of EPS Assemblies sold directly or indirectly to the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class in Ontario and the rest of Canada have been fixed, maintained, increased or controlled at artificially inflated levels; and
- (c) the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class have been deprived of free and open competition for EPS Assemblies in Ontario and the rest of Canada.

60. EPS Assemblies are identifiable, discrete physical products that remain essentially unchanged when incorporated into a vehicle. As a result, EPS Assemblies follow a traceable chain of distribution from the defendants and their co-conspirators to the OEMs (or alternatively to the Tier I Manufacturers and then to OEMs) and from the OEMs to automotive dealers to consumers or other end-user purchasers. Costs attributable to EPS Assemblies can be traced through the distribution chain.

61. By reason of the wrongful conduct alleged herein, the plaintiffs and the members of the Proposed Class have sustained losses by virtue of having paid higher prices for EPS Assemblies and/or new vehicles containing EPS Assemblies than they would have paid in the absence of the illegal conduct of the defendants and their co-conspirators. As a result, the plaintiffs and other members of the Proposed Class have suffered loss and damage in an amount not yet known but to be determined. Full particulars of the loss and damage will be provided before trial.

Punitive, Aggravated and Exemplary Damages

62. The defendants and their co-conspirators used their market dominance, illegality and deception in furtherance of a conspiracy to illegally profit from the sale of EPS Assemblies. They were, at all times, aware that their actions would have a significant adverse impact on all members of the Proposed Class. The conduct of the defendants and their co-conspirators was high-handed, reckless, without care, deliberate, and in disregard of the plaintiffs' and Proposed Class members' rights.

63. Accordingly, the plaintiffs request substantial punitive, exemplary and aggravated damages in favour of each member of the Proposed Class.

Service of Statement of Claim Outside Ontario

64. The plaintiffs are entitled to serve this statement of claim outside Ontario without a court order pursuant to the following rules of the Rules of Civil Procedure, RRO 1990, Reg 194 because:

- (a) Rule 17.02 (g) – the claim relates to a tort committed in Ontario;

(b) Rule 17.02 (p) – the claim relates to a person ordinarily resident or carrying on business in Ontario.

65. The plaintiffs propose that this action be tried at Toronto, Ontario.
