E. WHEREAS the Defendant is entering into this Settlement Agreement in order to achieve a final and nation-wide resolution of all claims asserted or which could have been asserted against the Releasees by the Plaintiff and the Settlement Class in the Proceeding, and to avoid further expense, inconvenience and the distraction of burdensome and protracted litigation;

(3) Except as provided for in Section 5.4, if the Settlement Agreement is terminated, the Settlement Agreement shall be null and void and have no further force or effect, and shall not be binding on the Parties or the Releasees, and shall not be used as evidence or otherwise in any litigation or in any other way for any reason.

5.2 If Settlement Agreement is Terminated

(1) If this Settlement Agreement is not approved, is terminated in accordance with its terms or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason:

- (a) no motion to certify the Proceeding as a class proceeding on the basis of this Settlement Agreement, or to approve this Settlement Agreement, which has not been decided, shall proceed;

5.3 Allocation of Settlement Amount Following Termination

- (1) If the Settlement Agreement is not approved, is terminated or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason, Class Counsel shall, within thirty (30) days of the written notice pursuant to Section 5.1(1) or 5.1(2), return to the Defendant the Settlement Amount and Administration Amount they have paid to Class Counsel, plus all accrued interest thereon, but less the costs of notices required by Section 11.1(1) and any translations required by Section 13.11 as deducted from the Administration Amount.

5.4 Survival of Provisions After Termination

- (1) If this Settlement Agreement is not approved, is terminated or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason, the provisions of Sections 3.1(8), 3.2(3), 5.1(3), 5.2, 5.3, 5.4, 7.1, 7.2 and 9.1(2), and the definitions, Schedules and miscellaneous provisions of Section 13 applicable thereto shall survive the termination and continue in full force and effect. The definitions and Schedules shall survive only for the limited purpose of the interpretation of Sections 3.1(8), 3.2(3), 5.1(3), 5.2, 5.3, 5.4, 7.1, 7.2, 9.1(2) and (as applicable) 13 within the meaning of this Settlement Agreement, but for no other purposes. All other provisions of this Settlement Agreement and all other obligations pursuant to this Settlement Agreement shall cease immediately.

SECTION 6 – RELEASES AND DISMISSALS

6.1 Release of Releasees

- (1) Upon the Effective Date, and in consideration of payment of the Settlement Amount and the Administration Amount and for other valuable consideration set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Releasors forever and absolutely release and forever discharge the Releasees from the Released Claims.

6.2 Release Includes Unknown Claims

(1) The Plaintiff acknowledges that she may hereafter discover facts in addition to, or different from, those facts that she knows or believes to be true regarding the subject matter of the Settlement Agreement, and it is her intention to release fully, finally and forever all Released Claims on her behalf and on behalf of the Settlement Class she seeks to represent, and, in furtherance of such intention, this release shall be and remain in effect notwithstanding the discovery or existence of different facts.

6.3 No Further Claims

(1) Upon the Effective Date, each Releasor shall not now or hereafter institute, continue, maintain, intervene in or assert, either directly or indirectly, whether in Canada or elsewhere, on their own behalf or on behalf of any class or any other Person, any proceeding, cause of action, claim or demand against any Releasee, or any other Person including, without limitation, any Person who may claim, in any manner or forum, contribution, indemnity or any other relief from any of the Releasees in connection with the Released Claims.

6.4 No Known Assignment of Claims

(1) The Plaintiff and Class Counsel represent that they are not aware of any action, cause of action, claim, debt, suit or demand of any nature or kind arising from or relating to the Released Claims that has been assigned by any Releasor to any person, corporation or entity (including the Crown).

6.5 Dismissal of the Proceeding

(1) Upon the Effective Date, the Proceeding shall be dismissed with prejudice and without costs as against the Defendant.

6.6 Material Term

(1) The releases, covenants, dismissals, and granting of consent contemplated in this Section shall be considered a material term of the Settlement Agreement and the failure of the Court to approve the releases, covenants, dismissals, and granting of consent contemplated herein shall give rise to a right of termination pursuant to Section 5.1 of the Settlement Agreement.

SECTION 7 – EFFECT OF SETTLEMENT

7.1 No Admission of Liability

(1) The Plaintiff and the Releasees expressly reserve all of their rights if the Settlement Agreement is not approved, is terminated, or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason. Further, whether or not the Settlement Agreement is finally approved, is terminated, or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason, this Settlement Agreement and anything contained herein, and any and all negotiations, documents, discussions and proceedings associated with this Settlement Agreement, and any action taken to carry out this Settlement Agreement, shall not be deemed, construed, or interpreted to be an admission of any liability by the Releasees, or of the truth of any of the claims or allegations contained in the Proceeding, or any other pleading filed by the Plaintiff.

7.2 Agreement Not Evidence

(1) The Parties agree that, whether or not it is finally approved, is terminated, or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason, this Settlement Agreement and anything contained herein, and any and all negotiations, documents, discussions and proceedings associated with this Settlement Agreement, and any action taken to carry out this Settlement Agreement, shall not be referred to, offered as evidence or received in evidence in any pending or future civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding, except in a proceeding to approve and/or enforce this Settlement Agreement, to defend against the assertion of Released Claims, as necessary in any insurance-related proceeding, or as otherwise required by law.

7.3 No Further Litigation

(1) No Class Counsel, nor anyone currently or hereafter employed by or a partner with Class Counsel, may directly or indirectly participate or be involved in or in any way assist with respect to any claim made or action commenced by any Person against the Defendant which relates to or arises from the Released Claims. Moreover, these Persons may not divulge to anyone for any purpose any information obtained in the course of the Proceeding or the negotiation and preparation of this Settlement Agreement, except to the extent such information is or becomes otherwise publicly available or unless ordered to do so by a court.

SECTION 8 – CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT ONLY

(1) The Parties agree that the Proceeding shall be certified as a class proceeding as against the Defendant solely for the purpose of settlement of the Proceeding and the approval of this Settlement Agreement by the Court.

(2) The Plaintiff agrees that, on the motion for certification of the Proceeding as a class proceeding for settlement purposes and for approval of this Settlement Agreement, the only common issue that she will seek to define is the Common Issue and the only class that she will assert is the Settlement Class.

NOTICE OF CERTIFICATION, SETTLEMENT APPROVAL HEARING AND DISTRIBUTION PROTOCOL APPROVAL HEARING IN CANADIAN TD COIN COUNTING CLASS ACTION

TO: Persons in Canada who used a coin counting machine at TD Bank between January 1, 2013 and May 25, 2016
--

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. IT MAY AFFECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS.

A. What is a class action?

A class action is a lawsuit filed by one person on behalf of a large group of people.

B. What is this class action about?

A class action has been started in Ontario that claims The Toronto Dominion Bank ("TD Bank") breached its agreements with consumers' when it represented that its coin counting machines would accurately count coins, even though it knew or ought to have known that the machines did not do so.

It is alleged that TD Bank knew or ought to have known, that its customers did not count change prior to depositing funds in machines to be counted, precisely because this would defeat the purpose of using the machines. As a result, it is alleged that TD Bank knew its customers were vulnerable to being shortchanged if the machines did not perform with accuracy.

For more information about the class action, visit www.TDcoinclassactioncanada.com.

A. What settlement has been reached in this class action?

A settlement is when a defendant agrees to pay money to the members of the class action in exchange for being released from the case, without admitting liability for any of the claims.

TD Bank has agreed to settle the class action for payment of $555,000 in exchange for a full release of the claims against it. The class action has been certified against TD Bank for settlement purposes. TD Bank does not admit any liability, wrongdoing or fault.

The settlement is subject to the approval of the Court. The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice in Kitchener, Ontario on December 20, 2018 at 10:00am. The Court will decide whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the settlement class members.

B. Who is affected by the settlement?

The class action was certified as a class proceeding as against the defendant for the purposes of implementing the settlement agreement.

You are affected by the class action and/or are a “member” of the settlement class if you are a person who used a TD coin counting machine in Canada between January 1, 2013 and May 25, 2016 (the “Class Period”).

C. What steps should I take now?

If you want to be a member of the TD Coin Counting class action, you do not need to do anything. However, there are two steps that you should take to protect your legal rights:

1. You should keep record of any deposits you made to a TD coin counting machine from January 1, 2013 to May 25, 2016. Records include receipts and bank statements showing direct deposits.
2. You should register online at www.TDcoinclassactioncanada.com to receive updates about the TD Coin Counting class action.

Settlement class members who do not oppose the proposed settlement need not appear at the settlement approval hearing or take any other action at this time.

If you want to tell the Court what you think about the proposed settlement or speak to the Court at the hearing listed above, you must send your written submissions to Class Counsel at the address listed below, postmarked no later than [DATE – the earlier of 30 days after notice is given and 10 days before Ontario hearing date]. Class Counsel will forward such submissions to the Court. All filed written submissions will be considered by the Court. If you do not file a written submission by [DATE], you may not be entitled to participate in the settlement approval hearing.

If you want to attend the hearing, please contact Class Counsel for additional details.

D. What happens to the money paid under the settlement?

The settlement with TD Bank, if approved, will conclude the class action.

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve a protocol for distributing the aggregate settlement funds, plus accrued interest, less court approved legal fees and other expenses (the “Distribution Protocol”). The hearing will be held in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice in Kitchener, Ontario on December 20, 2018 at 10:00am.

A copy of the proposed Distribution Protocol is available at www.TDcoinclassactioncanada.com or from Class Counsel.

Settlement class members who used a TD Bank coin counting machine between January 1, 2013 and May 25, 2016 will be able to complete a claim form and submit the claim form together with documentation supporting their coin deposit into the TD Bank coin counting machine. A further notice will be published with the details and deadline for filing a claim under the Distribution Protocol.

To value a claim, the claims administrator will:

1. Review the settlement class member's claim form; and
2. Allocate a portion of the settlement fund for payment to the class member that is proportionate to the value of coins deposited by that class member using the TD Bank coin counting machine relative to the total value of all claim forms received.

The claims administrator will audit a portion of all claims submitted by settlement class members to ensure there is proper documentation to support the settlement class members' claims.

This notice only summarizes the Distribution Protocol. More information about the Distribution Protocol is available at www.TDcoinclassactioncanada.com. Questions about the Distribution Protocol or any other matters contained in this notice may be directed to Class Counsel at tdcoinmachines@sotosllp.com.

E. What if I don't want to be in the class action?

- your full name, current address and telephone number;
- if you are writing on behalf of a company, the name of the company and your position at the company; and
- a statement saying that you (or the company) want to opt-out of the TD Coin Counting class action.

Requests to opt-out of the proceeding must be post-marked or sent by [date].

If you exclude yourself or opt-out:

- you will not be eligible to participate in the ongoing class action, and
- you will not receive any money from this class action, but
- you will be able to start your own case against the defendants regarding the claims at issue in the class action.

If you do nothing, and so do not exclude yourself or opt-out:

- you will be eligible to participate in the ongoing class action, and
- you may receive money from the class action, but
- you will not be able to start or continue your own case against the Defendant regarding the claims at issue in this action

This is your only chance to exclude yourself or opt out of the TD Coin Counting class action.
